1. Call to Order

The meeting was called to order at 10 AM and began with introductions.

2. Site Visit & History

Steve O'Donnell discussed the history of town farm and its historical uses. In addition, he provided context on recent uses and activities at the site.

Following O'Donnell's background there was a discussion and Q&A among committee members and citizens around potential uses, site characteristics, and the recent history of the Governor Stoughton Trust and its meeting schedule as well as the charge of the committee.

At the completion of the impromptu Q&A committee members and citizens toured the site individually.

A motion to adjourn was invited by the Chair and made by Ms. Musto, it was seconded by Ms. Hall and passed unanimously.
