

Glossary of Terms:

LandCare Yard: Area located on the southerly side of the Property where bulk agricultural material will be sold from, area where landscaping trucks will be loaded and unloaded, area where incoming deliveries will be unloaded.

Green House: Rigid plastic house for growing plant material.

Lath House: Structure attached to the Green House that houses plants and gets them adjusted to the weather before planting them out in the garden.

Grow Out Field: Growing field for plant material that has a compost/soil base.

Compost Pile: Compostables originated on-site that includes soil, grass and plant clippings, brush, limbs and discarded plant material. This is a temporary pile that will be removed weekly to 217 Hillside Street.

NutriMulch: 2/3 aged bark mulch combined with 1/3 aged compost.

OrganiGro: Certified organic compost from a local Massachusetts farm.

Loam: Finely screened soil.

NutriSoil: OrganiGro and Loam mixed together.

Kiln-Dried Firewood: Cut and split firewood that had been dried in a kiln.

¾" Stone: Crushed rocks which have all passed through a 3/4" square screen.

Stone Dust: Mixture of stone dust which has passed through a 1/2" square screen. This material will range in size from 1/2" down to the smallest sand particle and every size in between.

Dense Grade: Mix of crushed stone and stone dust.