

---

PRIVATE WELLS

CHAPTER 2 PRIVATE WELLS

No physical cross connection shall be maintained between the distribution system of a public water supply, the water of which is being used for drinking, domestic, or culinary purposes, and the distribution system of any unapproved water source, unless said connection has been approved by the Department of Environmental Protection in accordance with its rules and regulations and unless a permit has been issued by the department.